Wikiki Episode2

‘Beki, Born to the breath Hero’

Although Pengki and Bingo left for Poki Island with great ambition, the journey was not always going as they expected. The raft made with ice started melting as the ocean got warmer. The warmer the water got, the smaller the raft got, to the point where there was hardly any raft left at all! Fortunately, Beki was secretly on the raft with them and she learned how to use the Wiki blower by watching Pengki. Beki came out of where she was hiding and said looking at the Wiki blower that Pengki had “I think I can help. Let’s go!” Not only was Beki’s body big and comfortable for Pengki and Bingo to hop on, but was she also an excellent swimmer. Beki tossed the Wiki blower into the water. Swoosh...Swoosh...As the blower started swooshing, all the creatures under the sea oohed and aahed. Pengki couldn’t imagine how it would’ve been possible to get to the Poki Island without the strange friend, Beki.

“What a trip!” Beki said as she threw herself onto the sandy beach. “Wow!” Pengki said. “I didn’t know that you were on the ice raft. You did an amazing job! By the way what’s your name?” “Beki.” She said as she was dusting off the sand. “The Wiki blower is so amazing...” She murmured.

The sun set and darkness blanketed the beach. Beki gathered up twigs and tree branches and started a fire. Pengki, Bingo and Beki were soon all warmed up. Pengki blew his Wiki blower so the fire would get bigger and stronger. Beki watched him. For her, gathering tree branches was not a big deal but she suddenly envied the Wiki blower that Pengki had. “I want to have one,” Beki thought.

In Poki Island, there were already a lot of different animals living harmoniously. When Pengki, Bingo and Beki arrived they were thought of as intruders. So they all felt like they needed to protect one another. They stuck together everywhere they went, but Beki could not stop thinking about Pengki’s Wiki blower that she wanted so much. She tried to make the blower out of the wood in Poki Island. But it wasn’t the same. She started plotting to bother Pengki and take his Wiki blower from him. She could hurt Pengki with tree branches, and tackle him while he ran. So many wicked thoughts were coming to her...

Pengki and Bingo’s mission in Poki island was to find the legendary monkey with the rainbow tail, but they got tired and started falling asleep. Beki saw the Wiki blower hanging around Pengki’s neck. “Hmmm... Now is the time!” Beki thought. Out of nowhere a black bear, by name of Blacki, showed up. Blacki stood right between Beki and Pengki. “Leave Pengki alone!” he demanded. Beki saw Blacki’s Wiki blower. “Stop me if you can with your Wiki blower!” The Wikiki match started between Beki and Blacki. Huff! Puff! Bang! Clang!

Blacki was winning. Blacki told Beki how it is not right to envy someone else’s belongings. He said friends are supposed to help each other. “Beki, you have strength so you have to use it to protect your friends.” Blacki gave her the B’zT super shirt and Wiki blower as presents. As Beki put on the B’zT super shirt, she started to feel her inner power. “That’s right! I have the power to help my friends!”

When Blacki was about to say good-bye, Beki woke up from her dream. She looked around. “Wait! It was just a dream.” Then she looked at herself. She was wearing the B’zT super shirt and holding the Wiki blower in her hand! She stared at Pengki. ‘I think I can be a very good friend of Pengki!’ Bingo felt something was different about Beki and flew around, excited. “Beki, let’s get going!” Pengki said tapping Beki’s shoulder.
